

iSight

iSight is a plug and play based system for banking sector or similar industries who deal with finance transaction in any mean. iSight provides a complete landscape view of the product based on real time customer experience from end user usage perspective

Example: System can perform multiple online fund transfer operations NEFT/IMPS/RTGS back to back or on schedule intervals throughout the day and consolidates overall experience in well-structured way. If there are any technical failures recorded it notifies immediately to the relevant team / person for further course of action

